Dear Pupils of Ascot Heath CE Junior School,

Thank you for being moved, for wanting to change the world and for getting together and by raising £212.20 towards Oxfam's Syrian Refugee Crisis by holding a book sale.

We're in this together

By fundraising for Oxfam, you've taken direct action against poverty. The money you've raised will go towards helping communities work their way out of terrible poverty. You're helping to change the minds of world leaders and decision makers on major issues that keep people poor – like climate change and trade – taking us giant steps closer to making the world a fairer, safer, better place to live for everyone.

For me this work is truly inspiring. We're a global community that's bringing about world change and you're a vital part of it.

Oxfam's education website

www.oxfam.org.uk/education has a wealth of resources for the classroom and you can also arrange for an Oxfam speaker to visit your school. Our school speakers encourage pupils to explore a range of issues that affect people living in developing countries, and the ways in which they can make a positive difference to the world.

You can visit oxfam.org.uk for all the latest on our work. Or if you have questions please call us on 0300 200 1300 or email us at enquiries@oxfam.org.uk - we'll be really happy to hear from you.

When people get together who want to change things for the better, great things can happen.

Thank you again,
